Longstanding employees recognised at GPC's Service Awards

45 employees were recognised for their longstanding commitment to the Gladstone Ports Corporation (GPC) during August at GPC's annual Service Award functions.

Each individual received a special gift in commemoration of their service, ranging from 10 to 40 years, with the group collectively boasting a total 805 years of knowledge and experience with GPC

GPC CEO Leo Zussino said the Board and Management are very proud of the vast wealth of experience that the Corporation has at its disposal.

"It is this wealth of experience that is driving the success of our port," Mr Zussino said.

"Our longstanding employees set a great example to the younger members of our workforce who will lead the Port of Gladstone to future growth and prosperity in the years to come," he said.
